Bushy Park Boat Landing Plans Will Not Move Forward

MONCKS CORNER, S.C. - (Monday, December 31, 2018) The Berkeley County Administration regrets to announce that the new boat landing at the Bushy Park Industrial park will not go forward as planned. Recent discussions with senior officials with the parent company for Bushy Park revealed that the assurances given to County officials by local Bushy Park management regarding the availability of property for the boat landing were not approved by their governing board of directors. Bushy Park senior officials have pledged that funds expended by the County for feasibility studies and preliminary design will be reimbursed.
