Death in Ladson Being Investigated as Homicide

MONCKS CORNER, SC – Berkeley County Sheriff Duane Lewis announced this morning that the death of 27 year-old Donald Timothy Lloyd, Jr. of Ladson is being investigated as a homicide. The body of Mr. Lloyd was found lying in the roadway on Frank Jones Road last night shortly before 9:00PM.

“Our Office has had a team of detectives working around the clock to find out exactly what happened last night and give closure to the victim’s family,” said Sheriff Lewis. “At this time we are going through forensic evidence that was collected at the scene and investigating leads to determine the events that transpired. Our Office will provide additional details on the investigation, as they become available.”

An autopsy has been ordered by Berkeley County Coroner Bill Salisbury, who will release more information on its findings later.
